Key Themes from What We Heard

Homeowner · Trust

"The hardest part is being able to find someone qualified... that you can trust."

Homeowner · Filtered Social Proof

"I look at reviews online... those are most important to me"

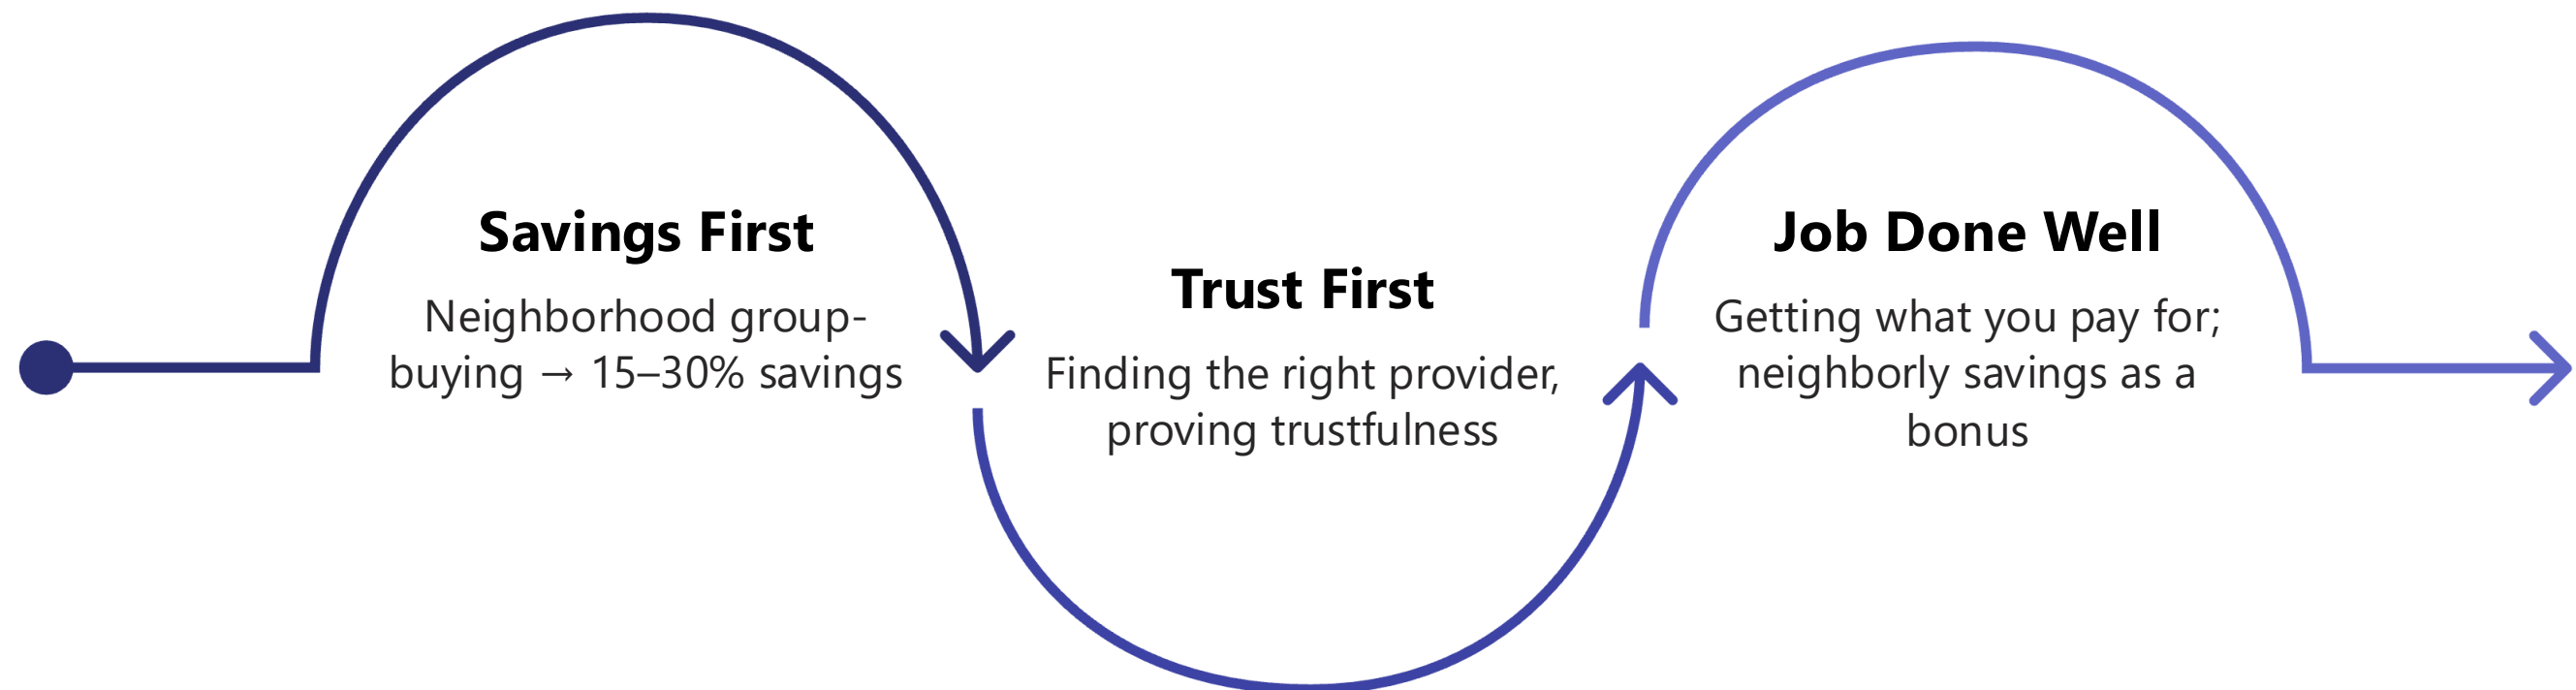

Homeowner · Hassle

"A service feels worth the price if it... gives me time back in my week"

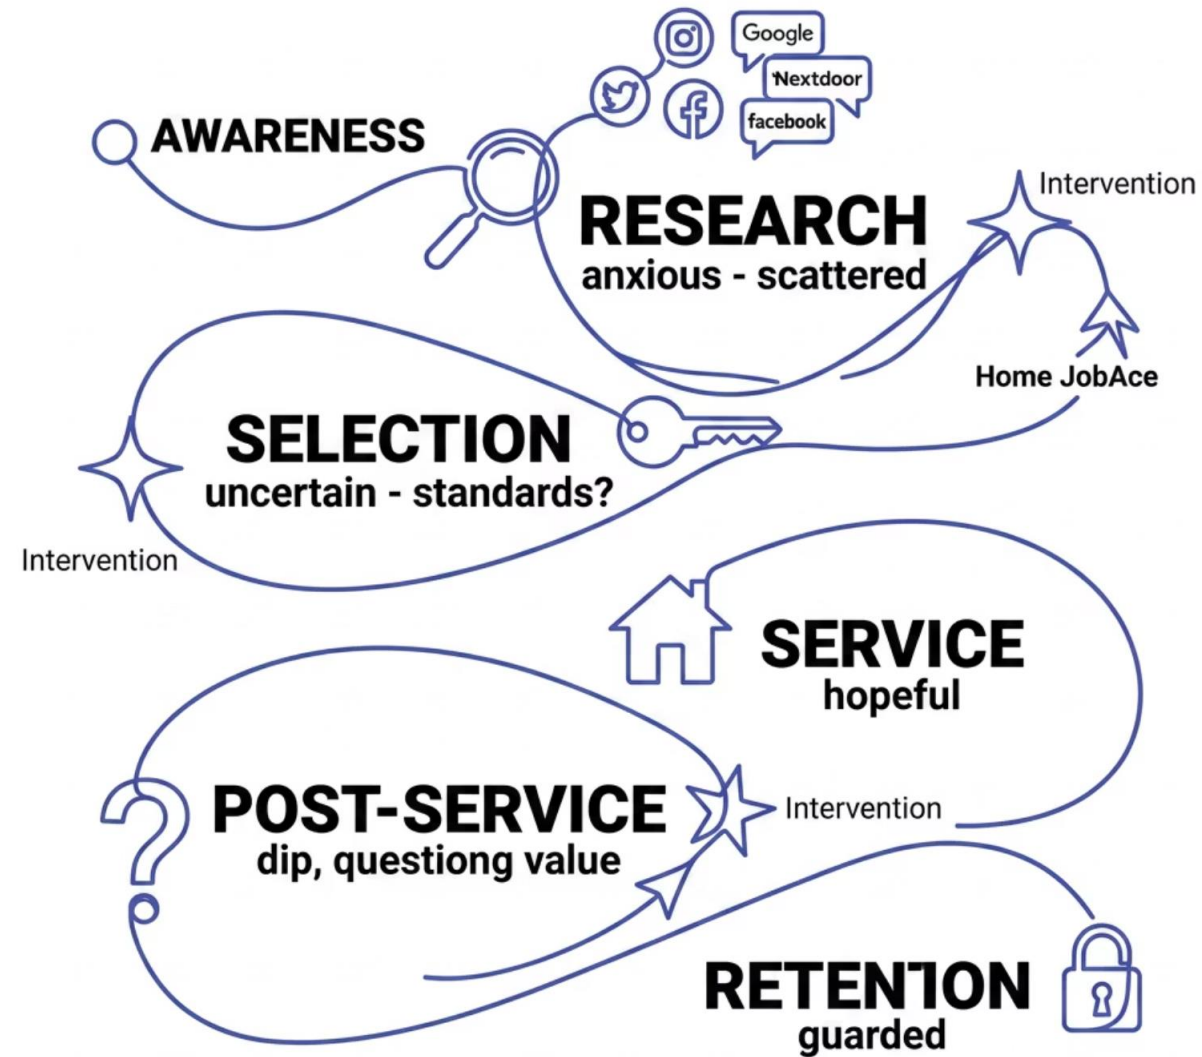

Provider · Customer Acquisition

"Getting customers is half the job. If I can't market. I don't get paid"

SUBJECT

Lawn Repair Inquiry - 72704

BODY

Hello Marcus, I'm reaching out about a lawn repair project at my home in 72704. My lawn has become quite patchy, and my dog's digging is causing additional damage.

We're keen to find experienced help for a comprehensive solution that includes addressing the patchy grass and preventing future pet damage. Using pet-safe products for any treatments is a high priority for us.

Could you provide a written estimate for services like overseeding, weed control, and soil remediation? I am flexible for a visit during weekdays to assess the property and discuss potential solutions in more detail.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from

Why This Is Structurally Different

The obvious question: isn't this just Angie, Thumbtack, or Nextdoor? No. Here's Why

Dimension	Home Job Ace	Nextdoor	Angie / Thumbtack
Business Model	Freemium (2-sided)	Social feed	Pay-per-lead (29–41%)
Trust Source	Reviews + Neighbors	Neighbor chatter	Stranger reviews
Provider Outcome	Better jobs, more density	None	One-off lead
Homeowner Outcome	Confidence + Convenience	More noise	Still shopping, frequent calls

 Not a marketplace. The current process + transparency.
